5. How do you ensure a match between a caregiver and a new client? We begin this process with a visit to the client's home to get to know them and better understand their needs. Based on that assessment, we carefully select a caregiver with the appropriate experience and personality to meet those needs.

6. How many different caregivers typically work with a client? This depends on the number of hours of care a client needs. We strive to maintain continuity of care between our caregivers and their clients to build confidence and establish a strong bridge for success.

7. How is the level of care assessment performed? Once an initial assessment has been made by our clinical nurses, we will meet with the new client to review and discuss recommended care. Levels of care can be adjusted based on a client's needs and are provided in writing. Meetings with families are a welcomed part of this process.

8. What happens if a caregiver is not available on a specific day? Menders by Lenbrook knows and understands the importance of prompt and reliable caregiving. We have a trained team of on-call staff to offer coverage should this need arise.
